Rochester, NY Hiking Group to Visit the Oak Ridges Trail

King City, May 29, 2006 - On Wednesday, June 7th, eighteen members of the "Wednesday Hikers" from Rochester, New York, will hike the Oak Ridges Trail near King City.

Arriving the day before and staying overnight at Seneca College's King Campus, the Rochester group will join members of the Oak Ridges Trail Association for morning and afternoon walks on the Oak Ridges Trail and other trails on the college's property. The first hike will depart from the "Gate House" at Seneca at 9:30 am.

Later in 2006 or in 2007, Oak Ridges Trail Association members will journey to the Finger Lakes area of New York State to enjoy a reciprocal hike.

ORTA president, Stan Butcher, who will welcome the hikers, said "This is a great example of the growing popularity of the Oak Ridges Trail and the friendships that draws people to hiking."
